SEE WHAT'S NEXT AT PCBC 2011

For over 50 years PCBC has been the place to see the newest products from the industry's most respected manufacturers and service partners. No other event on the West Coast gives you access to a greater number of products, solutions, and break-through ideas than PCBC.

With the history of showcasing innovation, energy conservation, green building and the latest product trends as our starting points, PCBC 2011 has enhanced the exhibit floor with a series of new featured areas – Home of Innovation, Outdoor Living Showcase, Renewable Energy Pavilion and Green Pavilion. Each area will provide access to the latest information, education and product solutions.
